

Nefertari International Schools

Circular 8

16/12/09

Dear Parents,

Kindly be informed that two H1N1 cases have been reported positive in the building. Accordingly, the school administration will consider today Wednesday December 16th the last school day. School will resume normally on Sunday January 10th.

Please be reminded that Revision sessions for the Ministry of Education Exams (Arabic, Religion and Social studies for Years 3, 6,9) will be held normally on January 3rd, 4th and 5th from 7:30 am until 12:30 pm.

Buses will be available to pick up and drop off students home. Gate students will come and depart the school with their parents.

Also be informed that vacation homework will be distributed today. Absentees will receive their packets through the bus matrons. As for gate students, parents are responsible to collect their children's packets from school today or tomorrow Thursday December 17th.

Administration and teachers will start the Winter Break as of Sunday, December 20th.

Parents are highly encouraged to visit our website for updates

www.niscl.com

Wish you a happy vacation!

Regards,

School Administration